

With the support of

2nd IMAGINE PEACE SUMMER CAMP

apply
now

24-31 July 2016 • Ancient Olympia, Greece

Are you a youth leader?

Do you want to develop leadership and advocacy skills for Olympism and social inclusion through sport?

Apply for one of our assisted places and participate in the 2nd Imagine Peace Summer Camp. The assisted place scheme covers all programme costs within Greece including accommodation, meals, transport to and from Athens to Olympia.

Imagine Peace Summer Camp, is an activity-based learning programme in which participants share experiences, use critical thinking skills and link learning to their own action plans. Participants will use a variety of digital and traditional media to explore ways of promoting understanding and respecting diversity.

The camp is anchored by the view that sport plays a fundamental role in shaping communities positively, can help create a more peaceful world and aid post-conflict societies.

Who can apply: Youth leaders aged between 17-25 with level of English equivalent to Common European Framework B2 and above.
